COURSE SYLLABUS

Project Leadership Course (Self-Paced)

Build the leadership skills that move you beyond managing tasks to leading people, so your project teams stay motivated, aligned, and productive even under real budget and deadline pressure.

> Group classes (Live Online) and onsite training are available for this course. For more information, email onsite@graduateschool.edu or visit: https://www.graduateschool.edu/courses/project-leadership-course-self-paced support@graduateschool.edu •

(888) 744-4723

Course Outline

Module 1: Exploring Leadership

- Describe the three skill areas of PMI's Talent Triangle® and how Power Skills drive project leadership
- Distinguish between leadership and management as it applies to project management
- Describe the Project Leadership Conceptual Model

Module 2: Leadership Models/Organizational Structures

- Describe how leadership models and organizational structures affect project management
- Explore how organizational structures affect workflow and project efficiencies

Module 3: You as a Leader

- Describe the most important leadership traits for project success
- Assess your leadership style preference
- Apply leadership skills to accomplish project goals

Module 4: Communications in a Project

- Explain how effective communication leads to better project management
- Describe strategies for managing communication channels

Module 5: Leading Project Teams

- Describe the role of a project leader in building successful teams.
- Describe the obstacles and challenges that hinder project teams.
- Explain the 5 Stages of Team Development.
- Describe the characteristics required for leading high-performing teams.

Module 6: Putting it All Together

Apply project leadership skills to case-based scenarios.