

AI for Federal Leadership and Management

Participants will analyze real-world case studies, engage in executive-level discussions, and develop action plans for aligning talent, technology, and mission outcomes. The course emphasizes actionable strategies to foster an adaptable, future-ready workforce and sustain public trust in the age of intelligent automation.

Group classes in Live Online and onsite training is available for this course. For more information, email onsite@graduateschool.edu or visit: <https://www.graduateschool.edu/courses/ai-federal-leadership-management>

CustomerRelations@graduateschool.edu • \(888\) 744-4723744-4723)

Course Outline

AI and the Future of Federal Work

- Key trends
- The changing role of leaders in AI-driven organizations

Strategic Leadership in an AI-Enabled Environment

- Vision-setting for digital transformation
- Aligning AI initiatives with agency mission and goals

Talent Management for the AI Era

- Identifying new skills and roles
- Upskilling and reskilling strategies

Leading Change and Fostering Engagement

- Managing organizational and cultural change
- Communicating vision and addressing workforce concerns

Ethics, Governance, and Trust

- Setting ethical standards and expectations
- Oversight, accountability, and compliance frameworks
- Sustaining public trust and transparency

Executive Decision-Making with AI

- Leveraging AI for data-driven leadership
- Ensuring human judgment remains central

Action Planning

- Developing agency-specific plans for building and leading an AI-enabled workforce
- Sharing resources and best practices